Market Harborough

My dear Sir

I am very sorry from old age (nearly 84) and many attendant infirmities I am quite unable to supply you with the characters you desire, For many weeks I have been unable to leave my bedroom or even to dress myself, I am now completely hors de combat though I can still enjoy the Sight of good Illustrations like those of Dr. Cooke, I am yours most sincerely,

W. H. Woodley
