July 29, 1909.

Professor P. A. Saccardo,

Padova, Italy.

Dear Sir:

In as much as Sylloge Fungorum has practically come to completion, with the exception of the occasional supplements, we are reluctantly obliged to terminate our arrangement for exchange with you. We should be glad to continue the Botanical Gazette to your order at the regular subscription rates through your bookseller or William Wesley & Son, 28 Essex Street, Strand, London (12s, 13s, 6d). Such supplements as appear hereafter we shall be pleased to purchase through our regular channels.

Yours very truly,

CR Barnes
