CINCINNATI, O.,
U. S. A.

Cincinnati, O. August 3rd, 1916,

Prof. P. A. Saccardo,
Padova, Italy.

Dear Prof. Saccardo:--

I am in receipt to-day of the photograph you kindly sent me and which reached me in good condition. I desire to extend you my best thanks for the same. I will at once have a photo-engraving made and the four hundred copies that you desire and will forward them to you after a short delay. I think the photograph is an excellent piece of artistic work and I believe that I can do full justice to it in reproducing it.

With kindest regards, I remain,

Yours truly,

C. G. Lloyd,

Dictated.

THE LLOYD LIBRARY—Erected in 1908

The Lloyd Library and Museum

This institution is supported by John Uri and Curtis G. Lloyd, and is devoted to Botany, Pharmacy, Materia Medica and allied sciences with a section of eclectic medicine.

The number of volumes is about forty thousand, all of them on the above subjects.

The institution is incorporated, is free to the public, will never be sold, and will always remain a free and public institution for the benefit of science.
