March 25th, 1919.

Prof. P. A. Saccardo,
Universita de Padova,
Padova, Italy,

Dear Professor Saccardo:

Do you have any information regarding Rev. Bresadola? I have received several inquiries regarding him, and no one in this country has had any news of him since the termination of the war. I shall feel it as an especial favor if you will kindly write me anything you may know regarding him. I hope he is well and has come through the war in good condition.

With regards, I remain

Yours very truly,

C. G. Lloyd.

Dictated.

THE LLOYD LIBRARY—Erected in 1908

The Lloyd Library and Museum

This institution was founded by John Uri Lloyd and Curtis G. Lloyd, and is devoted to Botany, Pharmacy, Materia Medica, Natural History, and allied sciences, with a section of Eclectic medicine.

The number of volumes is about forty-seven thousand, all on the above subjects.

The institution is incorporated, is free to the public, and has been placed in trust with the Central Trust Co. An endowment, by Curtis G. Lloyd, with the Union Savings Bank and Trust Co. insures that it will always be maintained and remain a free and public institution for the benefit of science.
