

My dear Prof. Secor:

I trust
by this time that the first copy of my monograph sent through the Smithsonian has reached you. I am not sure whether I wrote you during the summer regarding it but if I did not I should be greatly obliged if you would forward this copy to Prof. E. Stahl, at Jena. The Laboulbienne seem unending. I have now enough new forms for a third monograph.

Sincerely yours

Oct. 18. 1909.
